Bruno Walter and the NBC 1939 Volume I

REMASTERED CDS 2 and 5

(April 1, 2022) CD-2: Upon revisiting this Bruno Walter NBC Volume I, which was mastered under pressed conditions, it was found that the second, third and fourth movement of the Haydn Symphony No. 92 are off pitch. The sound engineer originally checked the first movement, which is on pitch, and assumed the balance was on pitch. The Brahms Symphony No. 1, first movement, is slightly off pitch; here corrected.

(June 25, 2022) CD-5: We discovered an editing error in the Mahler Symphony No. 1 and are offering the disc as a replacement.

If you want to wait until your next order we can include it then and save ourselves postage cost. If you want to receive them now, do let us know and we will mail it promptly.
